Dolphins are sea animals that belong to the whales. A sea animal is the one that lives in the water. Dolphins are found all over the world in the oceans, seas, rivers and lakes. Dolphins are meat eaters: they feed on fish. They often swim together in groups and they have good eyesight and good hearing but they don't have a sense of smell. Dolphins come in different sizes. Some are smaller than the usual person, but others can be 30 feet long or more than five times than the usual person. Dolphins are very intelligent and communicate with each other using clicks and whistles. All dolphins are good swimmers and funny swimmers, too. If you go near the seashores, you might see dolphins playing and swimming happily there. Some park owners get dolphins in their parks to amuse the visitors.

After finishing preparatory school at 15, some students choose to stay in general education but 60 percent of them go to technical schools. That's why the Egyptian government is giving due care to the technical education and more technical schools are being built nowadays. Students who join such schools learn skills that they can really use in the world of work. Because of the quick changes in technology, the skills that people need today are very different to what was needed ten or twenty years ago.

There are also different kinds of technical schools and each school teaches a different kind of technical skill. Students who do very well at technical schools can then continue to study at university. They can get very good jobs, such as becoming engineers. However, all jobs that need technical skills are important. Life would be impossible without electricians, nurses, mechanics and farmers .

"Good news, good news." My mother repeated happily. "Your father agreed to satisfy the wish of everyone of you." That made me glad as I will get the laptop I always dreamt of. As a result, this will enable me to do my researches during my study at the university.

My elder brother, Kamal, will have a mobile phone as he is so fond of making calls, especially during his many travels all the year round. His job as a tour guide makes him stay outside home for days and sometimes for weeks. As for my sister, Mona, she wishes to have a digital camera because her hobby is photography. She hopes my dad will bring it, to be able to make a video of the wedding of our cousin. I think dad will pay much for these things, but he is happy and proud of us, because we are successful.

A) Answer the following questions:

1- What does Mona wish to have?

2- How is the laptop important for the writer?

3- Why do you think the writer's mother is happy?

Bike catchers are people who take bikes from canals in Amsterdam, a city in Europe. There are no hills in the city so a lot of people cycle to school and to work. In fact, thirty percent of people in Amsterdam travel to work by bike. The city also has a lot of canals and sometimes the bikes fall into the water. Perhaps this is because there are more bikes in the city than people ! In the 1960s, there were so many bikes in the canals that they began to damage the bottom of boats. That is when the job of bike catchers began. One bike catcher told me that they take 14.000 bikes out of the canals each year. People used to see different kinds and colours of bikes there.
